Subject: Microsoft Settlement

January 18, 2002

Attorney General John Ashcroft
US Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530-0001

Dear Mr. Ashcroft:

Thank you for the opportunity for public comment on the Justice Department's settlement agreement with Microsoft. Please make mine a "yes" vote for the settlement.

Microsoft has agreed to terms in the settlement that go beyond the charges in the lawsuit in an effort to settle the case and move on. Microsoft has answered the complaint that I have heard over and over again about the inability of Windows users to operate non-Microsoft programs within the Windows system.

The terms in the agreement are fair to all parties represented in the lawsuit. I would like to see this case finally settled and satisfied. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jimmie Lindersmith
